

Curriculum Vitæ

Thomas Dimmock DipHE RODP

NOTE: This is not my full CV, but one with limited information for my website

I am a healthcare professional with specialist interest in anaesthesia and pre-hospital care. I am a registered Operating Department Practitioner (ODP) and a Student Paramedic.

Education

BSc (Hons) Paramedic Practice University of Brighton	Currently Studying
DipHE Operating Department Practice Bournemouth University	2010
A-Level's Media Studies, Computing, Design Technology, AS - Geography	2008
GCSE's 12 GCSE's including Double Science, Mathematics and English	2006

Work Experience

Bank Operating Department Practitioner (Dec 2012 – Present)

Working as an Anaesthetic and Recovery Practitioner within a private healthcare setting.

Locum Operating Department Practitioner (Dec 2012 – Present)

Working as a Locum practitioner within a variety of anaesthesia and recovery settings

Student Paramedic (Sep 2011 – Present)

Undertaking my Student Paramedic placements with all clinical grades of staff including Paramedics and Specialist Paramedics

Operating Department Practitioner (Oct 2010 – Sep 2011)

Worked in all theatre departments specialising in Anaesthesia. Undertook work in the emergency theatres and on-call for obstetrics, and accident and emergency as well as looking after elective patients.

Student Operating Department Practitioner (Oct 2008 – Sep 2010)

Undertook my ODP placements in all specialties of perioperative and critical care.

Volunteering Experience

Medicines Management Framework Group College of ODP's (Apr 2011 – Present)

I am part of a focus group of 15 members nationally who are working together create a framework for medicines, patient group directives and prescribing in the ODP profession.

Community First Responder

South East Coast Ambulance (Jun 2010 – Present)
Working with the ambulance service to provide lifesaving treatment to priority patients and 999 calls in my local area and assisting with training.

Area Manager and Healthcare Professional St John Ambulance (Sep 2001 – Present)

I am the Area Manager for the South East Region. I volunteer as a healthcare professional and youth leader. I was previously the Sussex County Staff Officer for clinical operations and defibrillation. I have worked with National Headquarters for recognition of all allied healthcare professionals including ODP's.

Other Skills

I am competent in the use of computers and software, holding the European Computer Driving License and having completed the Cisco IT Essentials 1 Technician course.

I am a fully qualified First Aider, holding a current HSE approved First Aid at Work certificate. I have a full UK Manual driving license, with the nationally recognised pass plus training, advanced driver training with the Institute of Advanced Motorists (IAM) and a British Off Road Driving Association (BORDA) qualification.

References available on request

Address available on request

T: xxxxx xxxxxx
M: xxxxx xxxxxx
E: via website

ODP PIN: ODP32895